Mother Teresa – Where Is She Now?

Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu
(also known as Mother Teresa)

Mother Teresa is looked upon by the world as a having been one of the holiest people to have ever lived. But the world's standards are not God's standards. Just because many Roman Catholics think that this lady ended up in heaven does not make it so.

Following her death "Mother Teresa" was beatified (made into a saint) by Pope John Paul II and given the title Blessed Teresa of Calcutta. But does that mean she is really a saint or even in heaven for that matter?

Does the Pope determine who goes to heaven or does God alone make that determination? Does a person's good deeds get them to heaven or the atoning sacrifice of Jesus Christ alone get them to heaven? Does God consider a person a "saint" if the Pope beatifies them or does God consider a person a saint when they become "born again" (i.e. they become a true Christian)?

Sorry Catholics, regardless of what this "mother" Teresa ever said, you don't get to heaven by acts of kindness or good works. Nothing but the blood of Jesus can cleanse any one of your many thousands upon thousands of sins. You're in the same boat as the rest of us sinners.

> "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost" [Titus 3:5]

You worshipped the wrong Jesus and you followed and preached the wrong gospel.

> "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God." [Romans 10:3]

Click HERE to find out where people go when they die if they are trusting in penance, their good works, and the merits of saints for their salvation and not just the work of Christ at Calvary ALONE.

Click HERE to find out what a deceiver the POPE of the Catholic church is.

> "As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one. For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" [Romans 3:10,23]

If God considers "mother" Teresa to be a sinner in need of salvation, what must He think of YOU? Click here to find out.

If this woman had been a true Christian she would have left the Catholic church with its false "works" gospel and preached against it instead of supporting it her entire life.

If you are a Catholic and this material offends you or upsets you, then please ask yourself: "Is it possible that God might be offended if someone accepted all kinds of praise and adoration from people throughout the world – when that praise and adoration is due to God alone?". Many people were deceived into thinking that Mother Teresa, out of all people in the world, surely deserved to go to heaven. However, the truth is – from God's perspective – no one deserves to go to heaven. That is precisely why Jesus Christ had to suffer and die. Penance won't help, praying to this dead woman won't help, only crying out to God for mercy can help. The Bible says: "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near." [Isaiah 55:6] Notice how God tells us to seek THE LORD, not seek Mary or the Pope or Mother Teresa or the Catholic Church.

SEE ALSO:
Jesus Christ And The Pope Compared
Did Mother Teresa go to heaven?
Mother Teresa – A Lost Soul?
Ex-Missionaries of Charity allege culture of abuse and neglect
The Myth Of Mother Teresa by Tim Challies
Mother Teresa — A Lost Soul?
Was Mother Theresa A Christian?
How Mother Theresa Cash Propped-up the Vatican Bank
Where are the Billions of Mother Teresa? Vatican Bank Should Reveal
Mother Teresa's Hidden Wealth: How funds from desperate Hindus fueled global proselytism, could have bankrupted Vatican
Inside The Little-Known Dark Side Of Mother Teresa
Mother Teresa: Where are her millions?

— RM Kane