

Unchangeable Spiritual Truths

1. God is sovereign and intimately involved in this world - not some watchmaker sitting around and just watching things unwind.
 2. Man is spiritually dead, blind to how sinful he is in God's opinion and totally helpless to get himself to heaven or even contribute in some tiny way.
 3. Christ is totally unique among all religions and He claimed to be so when he walked this earth. He is also eternal God, creator and ruler of all things and as such will some day judge the living and the dead.
 4. Spiritual truth is just as real as physical truth. Denying those truths does not make them go away any more than denying the existence of the law of gravity.
 5. Hell is a real and eternal place of unending punishment and it will be the final destination of most people including people who think their good deeds will outweigh their bad and who think they are no worse than most people they know.
