

Epitaphs of the Catacombs

Christian inscriptions in Rome during the first four centuries.

You can read this electronic book in several ways, including from the reader window below.

Other formats include:

PDF | Plain Text | ePub | Send to Kindle

In addition, if you click on the FULL SCREEN icon  below, you can have the ebook read aloud  to you or you can click the PLAY button  and the reader will automatically flip the pages until you click the PAUSE button .

This book was written by J. Spencer Northcote from London, England and was published in 1878. It details the inscriptions engraved on tombs in the vast underground passageways underneath the city of Rome, Italy where pagans and Christians entombed their deceased loved ones many centuries ago.
