"Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers." – (Ephesians 4:29)

This is a Christian Internet discipleship ministry. You are free to copy and print all literature on this website. We do not offer (meaning, we do not mail out) printed material such as bibles and gospel tracts at this point in time. We appreciate any and all comments. You won't hurt our feelings if you don't agree with us. Not all Christians understand all doctrines equally well and we are still learning as we assume you are also.

May the Good Lord richly bless you as you test the spirits, prove all things and study to show yourself approved, a workman rightly dividing the word of truth.

In Christ's service by His grace alone,

brother RM Kane
