ComingInTheClouds Donation Policy

“Freely ye have received, freely give” [Matthew 10:8]

This ministry is not tax-deductible and does not seek donations. The Christian Discipleship materials we offer online via this website are free and Lord willing, always will be.

If we do decide to offer printed materials or electronic media by postal mail service, then at that point in time we may charge a fee to defray the costs, but that service has not yet been established.

If you wish to express your appreciation for the materials we provide, then feel free to link to our site from any social media accounts you may have (Google+, FaceBook, Twitter, YouTube, etc.). You can also “Like” our FaceBook page:
