

The Homecoming

"And he [Jesus] said, A certain man had two sons: And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry." [Luke 15:11-23]

(over)

The Homecoming

"And he [Jesus] said, A certain man had two sons: And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry." [Luke 15:11-23]

(over)

(side 2)

Do you want to be greeted by God in heaven like the father in the story greeted his wayward son? The only other option is to hear God say: "Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels" [Matthew 25:41]. This is what everyone will hear who does not repent of their sins. To repent, means that you come to the point in your life where you realize that YOU are no better, in God's eyes, than the wayward son described in the story. You need to throw yourself at the mercy of God, as the son threw himself at his father's mercy. You have no other hope of entering heaven. You have no other option. God is in charge of heaven. You may be satisfied with your life or your religion but that does not mean that God is satisfied. God is very holy. You can't just get to heaven any way you please and you won't get to heaven with the sinful heart that you were born with. You must first receive from God, a new heart that loves Him and His commandments:

"A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them." [Ezekiel 36:26-27]

If God does not make you fit for heaven you will have to spend all eternity in hell, paying for your sins yourself: "whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire" [Rev. 20:15]

For more information visit: www.ComingInTheClouds.org

(side 2)

Do you want to be greeted by God in heaven like the father in the story greeted his wayward son? The only other option is to hear God say: "Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels" [Matthew 25:41]. This is what everyone will hear who does not repent of their sins. To repent, means that you come to the point in your life where you realize that YOU are no better, in God's eyes, than the wayward son described in the story. You need to throw yourself at the mercy of God, as the son threw himself at his father's mercy. You have no other hope of entering heaven. You have no other option. God is in charge of heaven. You may be satisfied with your life or your religion but that does not mean that God is satisfied. God is very holy. You can't just get to heaven any way you please and you won't get to heaven with the sinful heart that you were born with. You must first receive from God, a new heart that loves Him and His commandments:

"A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them." [Ezekiel 36:26-27]

If God does not make you fit for heaven you will have to spend all eternity in hell, paying for your sins yourself: "whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire" [Rev. 20:15]

For more information visit: www.ComingInTheClouds.org

The Home Coming

"And he [Jesus] said, A certain man had two sons: And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry." [Luke 15:11-23]

(over)

The Home Coming

"And he [Jesus] said, A certain man had two sons: And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger! I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants. And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry." [Luke 15:11-23]

(over)

(side 2)

Do you want to be greeted by God in heaven like the father in the story greeted his wayward son? The only other option is to hear God say: "Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels" [Matthew 25:41]. This is what everyone will hear who does not repent of their sins. To repent, means that you come to the point in your life where you realize that YOU are no better, in God's eyes, than the wayward son described in the story. You need to throw yourself at the mercy of God, as the son threw himself at his father's mercy. You have no other hope of entering heaven. You have no other option. God is in charge of heaven. You may be satisfied with your life or your religion but that does not mean that God is satisfied. God is very holy. You can't just get to heaven any way you please and you won't get to heaven with the sinful heart that you were born with. You must first receive from God, a new heart that loves Him and His commandments:

"A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them." [Ezekiel 36:26-27]

If God does not make you fit for heaven you will have to spend all eternity in hell, paying for your sins yourself: "whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire" [Rev. 20:15]

For more information visit: www.ComingInTheClouds.org

(side 2)

Do you want to be greeted by God in heaven like the father in the story greeted his wayward son? The only other option is to hear God say: "Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels" [Matthew 25:41]. This is what everyone will hear who does not repent of their sins. To repent, means that you come to the point in your life where you realize that YOU are no better, in God's eyes, than the wayward son described in the story. You need to throw yourself at the mercy of God, as the son threw himself at his father's mercy. You have no other hope of entering heaven. You have no other option. God is in charge of heaven. You may be satisfied with your life or your religion but that does not mean that God is satisfied. God is very holy. You can't just get to heaven any way you please and you won't get to heaven with the sinful heart that you were born with. You must first receive from God, a new heart that loves Him and His commandments:

"A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them." [Ezekiel 36:26-27]

If God does not make you fit for heaven you will have to spend all eternity in hell, paying for your sins yourself: "whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire" [Rev. 20:15]

For more information visit: www.ComingInTheClouds.org